" . . . by signing this document and having it on public record, thus: 'Under penalty of life imprisonment, or death in extreme cases, I hereby pledge that I personally support the global ban on the practice of religion.'" In the name of peace, the world is forced to take sides. National Peace Organization operative Paul Stepola walks a dangerous tightrope as a double agent-a new believer assigned to enforce the ban on religion. Three major cities have been attacked by terrorists and thousands have died, all in the name of God. Paul must somehow find a way to expose the source of the terrorism without endangering fellow believers. And with his unbelieving wife's powerful connections, Paul faces danger on every front. In the face of persecution the seeds of faith grow stronger. The underground church prays for a miracle of global proportions-not seen since the time of Moses. In a world where madmen rule . . . The voice of God will not be SILENCED. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

The series is well written. It started off a little slow, the became a gripping, thought proving series. I will definitely be reading more books by Jerry Jenkins. Thoroughly enjoy the religious verses, and Bible quotes. I feel they add a lot to the story, and the series would NOT be as good as it is. Thank you for writing, publishing, and getting this series into my hands.

Well written and powerful. Especially from the Evangelical faith view. Jerry Jenkins has been a favorite writer of mine for quite a few years and books. Love it! The characters are so rich with background and substance. Keep up the excellent work Mr Jenkins and I keep reading...now on to book #3! What will Jae's decision be? Will Ranold realize he cannot and is not in control everything? Can the NPO stand against the Hand of God? Will Dengler become a believer? Lothair and the Underground, what's next now that God has answered the prayers of the righteous? OMG...have to go find out!

Great read..couldn't put it down. Just when you think you have it all figured out something happens. Absolutely can't wait now to get the 3rd book

Another well written novel by Jenkins. A part of a series.

Awesome series!!!

Good continuation from book #1 very exciting and fast read.

This book seamlessly picks up where the previous one, Soon, left off. I recommend the whole series. The story line kept me guessing.

I agreed with previous readers that the book started off rather slowly, but it did improve by the middle and especially by the end. It will definitely leave you wanting to start on the next installment. I also thought the addition of the Bible verses throughout was a great touch.
