I am a chef and cookbook author. So I don't often purchase cookbooks. But this book is a keeper. The recipes are so enticing, and Sarabeth's voice can be heard throughout. It's as if she is over your shoulder in the kitchen, graciously directing you to make her culinary delights. The selection of recipes is extensive - this is a large book! The photography is so beautiful. Finally Rizzoli makes a beautiful book, bringing all of these experts together in a single work. The chapter on her preserves is worth the cost of the book alone (no one makes jam like Sarabeth!) From simple ideas (cook your oats in a double boiler) to her ethereal blintzes, there is something here for every taste and skill. This book is a treasure. Buy it before the price goes up - but even at full price, it is well worth every cent.

I ask you,baker,cook,balaboosta : Could you go,another day without running into the kitchen to make Sarabeth’s sinful array of pancakes or flapjacks ? I didn’t think so. Me, either. I didn’t. Yes,they turned out perfectly, as her mother in law Hungarian recipes said they would. Sarabeth won’t leave you in a lurch or let you down. Even the gazpacho like Bloody Mary recipe is a treat and a half. So buy this book already. No need to thank me-thank Sarabeth.

I’ve loved Sarabeth’s food from the moment I ate breakfast at her restaurant in New York years ago. This is a wonderful cookbook focused on breakfast and brunch items. From simple things like making a fruit plate for a guest look lovely to frittatas and great looking baked goods, this is a book that I’ll use for overnight guests and just the two of us.

I am thoroughly in love with this book. I own and run a bed and breakfast and there is not one recipe I’ve tried that my guests don’t leave breakfast raving about. If I could give it 10 stars I would!

I have to admit I am disappointed. I wanted a special book, not the usual and boring breakfast and brunch books with the forever muffin, toast and eggs recipes, maybe with some classy ideas for a special breakfast. The book is huge and heavy, however the size is owed to the large font used, not the collection of bold recipes. Most of them don’t even have a photograph, and those that do are not overly inspiring or creative. The recipes are not bad, however run of the mill. This book should have better been a paperback in the $ 12 price range, then it would have been nice and decent, but I don’t get the posing as huge and heavy coffee table book.

Great, easy to replicate recipes and stellar photos. Love!

really good recipes

So far everything I made is delicious and I have learn a lot of goood techniques?
