Customer Reviews

I've always been interested in the music in the Little House books, so this is a good addition to my collection. As a piano player, I can play the songs and know how they sounded when the characters sang them. The accompanying CD was out of stock when I ordered this book, but I've enjoyed the book without it.

Dale Cockrell of Vanderbilt University has done the world of American Literature TWO very big favors...First, he is in the process of gathering the music of Laura Ingalls Wilder into a series of CDs, to augment the wonderful stories.And, because music IS an integral part of the Wilders' lives, it is only fitting that this should be done.Second, he helped compile this book, full of sheet music, lyrics, and vignettes.I've purchased five copies of the CD, and three of the books...they make most excellent gifts for those relatives of mine who love Laura Ingalls Wilder...my granddaughter was especially pleased to get the CD and book as a package.I highly recommend this to anybody who loves Laura Ingalls Wilder.
