Synopsis

A Sweet, Clean Romance Story SeriesThis new sweet, clean Amish romance series is about the Troyer girls, a family of four sisters. The girls live alone with their father, as their mother had passed a few years back. Follow along with the family as they walk the path that God has chosen for each girl. Share tears of joy as well as tears through trials with the girls, as they each learn to trust Him; and as a result find true love for their lives.Book 1-Miriam's StoryBook 2-Rose's StoryBook 3-Katie's StoryBook 4- Abigail's StoryMiriam's StoryThis first book of the series starts with Miriam, the eldest girl, and her story. Her life takes a sudden turn when she receives unexpected news from the young man she has been seeing for several years. To make matters worse, a situation arises which completely exhausts in many ways. She feels her world is falling apart. God does have a plan for her though... and although she has trouble trusting God, she eventually yields to His wisdom...Rose's StoryThis second book features Rose, the second eldest. She wants a little more out of life than just staying home to cook and clean. She finds a job and finds excitement and possibly her true love? But circumstances arise and all of that must end. Disheartened, Rose settles for the fact that her dreams will never come true...but upon helping a new friend in a similar situation, she finds God's true will for her life...and it just may include love.Katie's StoryThis third book features Katie, second to the youngest. She receives very disappointing news and is trying her best to deal with it and accept it as God's plan. Thankfully, her neighbor whom she babysits for has invited her to come along for a month long trip to help with the children while the neighbor attends to family business. This helps take her mind off the situation at hand, but also creates an entirely new situation for her to deal with. Confused, she wonders just what God has in mind for her...Abigail's StoryAbigail was born with a hip defect and walks with a limp. She has determined that no man in his right mind would want a disabled wife and has found peace instead with her love for animals, especially the hurt and neglected ones. One day a man brings a fawn to her who needs help. He continues to visit every day...along with his four young children. She is very puzzled by this family and their visits everyday, which God has chosen ahead of time to teach her a very valuable lesson...and through it all, she just may find love...Always FREE on KINDLE UNLIMITED

Customer Reviews

A great set of stories centered on God’s choice of mate for us. Each of these girls had thought they already had their future husband chosen, but these fellas disappointed the girls. They learned to be open to whom ever God put in their oath.When the fourth sister, Abigail, gets married I started getting wrt eyes and then when their dad reads a letter from his deceased wife that she had left for him.....I started blubbering and grabbing tissues.I would most definitely recommend this set to others.

I read the entire set in one day! I loved each one. They were positive, loving reads. I loved them.

The story for each sister keeps you guessing... enjoyed reading each one. It was good to see each book start out either soon after the previous book story-line ended or an even longer time between stories. A good read.

it was a beautiful love story with many ups and downs.please keep on writing I enjoy reading Amish books

Excellent b

Loved them

Very Interesting!

No matter the challenges in our lives, God has a very special and individualized plan for each one of His children
