George Dean is an attorney in Nashville, Tennessee, whose practice concentrates in the area of land use planning and zoning law, as well as codes enforcement issues. He graduated from Vanderbilt University School of Law in 1979 and began practicing in the Legal Department for Metro Nashville. He represented the Zoning Board, Planning Commission, the Codes Administration, and the Historic Zoning Commission. In private practice, Mr. Dean has been involved in a large number of land use planning and zoning cases, representing both governmental and private interests. Many of his cases have been significant in the development of land use planning law in Tennessee over the last 30 years. Mr. Dean is a frequent lecturer both in Tennessee and across the United States on codes issues.

Price is right. By a person who knows. The Author is a leading authority in this area of Tennessee Law. Very practical book.
