Synopsis

Survival Cebuano will teach you the Cebuano language skills that you need to survive on the streets of the Central and Southern Philippines. Things that a traveler or resident needs to be able to say to communicate with the local population. Cebuano is the same as Bisaya or Visayan, so if you want to learn any of these languages you have found the right course!This book is from Bob Martin, The Expat Answerman. Bob is an American who has been living in the Philippines since 2000. Bob is fluent in Bisaya/Cebuano. He learned to speak the language starting in 2007 through a private tutor. Now, Bob wants to help you learn enough of the language to give you a leg up when dealing with Filipinos and also so that you will have more fun in the Philippines!If you are traveling to the Philippines, particularly the Central or Southern Philippines, this book will help you get by and also be more accepted by the local population!You will be able to start speaking with local people in the Central and Southern Philippines, express simple ideas and needs.This is a great book for anybody who will be spending time in the Visayas and Mindanao regions of the Philippines.Not recommended for those who will be going to the Northern Philippines, the island of Luzon. They don’t speak Bisaya there.

Customer Reviews

Learning a language is very important when you need to communicate with people you visit. There is nothing more frustrating than wanting to speak even simple sentences and now knowing how. Listening to others who are speaking and not understanding is the second most frustrating experience you can have. Bob Martin opens the way to begin understanding Cebuano in this very helpful introduction to the language widely spoken in the southern Philippines.Bob is an expert who lives in the Philippines. He explains many aspects of life in the Philippines. One confusion that Bob helped me understand is which language to study when visiting different parts of the Philippines. Before my 2014 trip to visit the Philippines, I spend six months studying Tagalog thinking it would be helpful. When visiting southern Philippines, Cebuano is required. Tagalog is mainly useful near Manila.During my trip, I met with Bob and found him friendly and helpful. I recommend this book and other books that Bob has available.You're looking for answers in the Philippines, read Bob's books.
