Growing up in Nebraska all I ever wanted to do was leave and see any other part of the world that wasn’t so BORING! After 18 yrs away from Nebraska I returned and found this book. I was surprised that it was written by a woman who was a good friend through my high school years. When young I went to visit relatives in many of the small towns the author writes about. Now as an adult I am returning and finding a whole new experience. Nebraska is beautiful and is truly "The Good Life". She is guiding me on week-end trips to areas of this state that I would have never thought there was any worth to visit.Was I wrong! I’ve bought several of her books and will continue to have my week- end discoveries. It is a shame that she is no longer with us to share more of her experiences.

The descriptions of the locales and people are fascinating and are easy to read. If you are headed for Nebraska, or live in Nebraska, take this book with you on your next trip. You'll learn a lot!
