Excellent essays. Great points. Love reading this. Expanding my vision.

A wonderful series of essays by Unitarian Universalist religious educators from all over the continent. This book is a call for all churches to examine their own RE programs, and what emerges from the full set of essays is an exhilerating vision for what religious education can and should be - and is becoming!This book is valuable for the religious educator, minister, committee member, lay leader, parent, and anyone who is interested in how we can make sure our children grow up with the ability to form and articulate their own beliefs, in the context of their religious faith.As a professional religious educator, I cannot recommend this book highly enough.
