". . .exceptionally readable new translations of three classic philosophical/religious works." -- The American Theosophist

Eknath Easwaran’s clear, modern translations make these books appealing to the general reader as well as to the serious student. Each scripture includes an introduction placing it in its historical and spiritual context. Each chapter is introduced by an editor who has taught the work to college students and knows the questions asked by first-time readers.

Great read! Inspiring!

Beautiful condition! The set is absolutely gorgeous acsethically, I can’t wait to dig my mind into them!

Didn’t need the commentary.

Mr. Easwaran has given a concise and yet very easily understood presentation of Indian spirituality in these books. Enjoyed them.

Excellent!!!

love it

Well, timeless classics no doubt. But the secret is in the translation. I've seen a few translations of the gita, this is by far one of the best. So I decided to trust Eknath Easwaran and get the full set of all 3 books, and it turned out to be a very good choice! It is wonderful reading, and highly recommended.

I had a calling and this has hit the spot! The language used to tell us about the various scriptures has been wonderful for me. I would recommend it to all. It has been translated as is with a good amount of forward to explain the meanings of terms. Enjoy and may it bring you enlightenment!
