Book by Pitrone, Jean Maddern

This is a great book for anyone wanting to know the history of J.L. Hudson's Department Store. It's a must-have for Hudson memorabilia collectors. Written in 1991 it stops short of the last seven years of the great building's life as it sat empty while city government, historic preservation groups, developers and citizens discussed it's demise.

Born and raised in Detroit, Hudson's was THE place to shop. Great to obtain the entire history of the firm and it's demise.
