Synopsis

The Adriatic Coast of Croatia, with its beaches. marinas, and countless resorts, its ancient and well-preserved medieval cities (Dubrovnik, the star), all supplemented by the great city of Zagreb, and a superb climate, is the current "hit" of European tourism. It is predicted by some that Croatia will soon be the world’s 12th most popular travel destination--all ample reason for the publication of this new Frommer’s guidebook. Jaunty and fun to read, yet detailed, practical and cost-conscious, this Easy Guide is sure to be a best-seller.

Jane Foster is a freelance travel writer specializing in Croatia, Montenegro and Greece. She is author of several guidebooks to these countries, as well as being the Dubrovnik and Athens expert for the Telegraph newspaper (UK) Travel section. She also writes for various in-flight magazines and travel websites. Jane resides in Split, Croatia.

This is for my daughter and she says Frommer’s is the best. Unfortunately. she won’t be able to travel there at this time.

This was the most helpful of all the books we invested in with respect to Croatia. My husband planned the majority of our upcoming visit from this book and we can’t wait to experience it. Excellent guide to sites, hotels and basic information.

Not as informative as i had hoped it would be.

The book is NOT terribly engaging. There are few photographs and an inadequate glossary.

Concise with an excellent choice of restaurants, all the ones we tried were very good, both in terms of food and ambience. The hotels section could do with an update as some new ones have opened over the last 2-3 years.

Great
