Customer Reviews

A well written tempestuous love story. Highly charged story with passionate characters with historical details. It grabs you from the beginning and holds you all the way to the end. It held me from the beginning to the end. I was totally spellbound all the way to the end. A keeper for me and it will be for you also. 10 stars Debi Allen

This border series novels is worth and follows suite with romantic Scottish gauntlet. The mere damsel in distress and a knight coming apond her in the border of England and Scotland bring a storyline already told. Yet, the storytelling of Cecelia Mecca was still fresh and binding her reader's to hold still and finish.

If at all possible, this book is better than the first one i read by this author. Following het on FB, I can see the inspiration for Bryce come alive. Thank you Cecelia for another beautiful book and journey to another land and time.

Good read. Bryce and Catrina should have hated each other. Bryce's parents had been killed and the Waryn lands lost when Catrina's family attacked by order of the King of Scotland. However, love is blind and always finds a way.

This is a great book. Bryce has a brooding personality and Catrina is strong and determined. She will give Bryce a challenge at every turn. Ms. Mecca is a new and up incoming author to look for.

I loved reading about Sir Bryce and Catrina! The hate/love relationship was very well written. I enjoyed the arguments that they had together and how stubborn they both were.

This was a fantastic story! I was so engrossed, I could not put it done. The first of the series was also great. I highly recommend these stories.

The story line and cast of characters are easy to follow. If you like historical fiction and romance, this is a good series to lose yourself in.
