Synopsis

In the wake of NeverlandÃ¢â ¬â„¢s destruction, Michael Darling harbors a heart that cannot find its place in the real world. John Darling is haunted by the memories of a native princessÃ¢â ¬â„¢s kiss. Tootles is a Lost Boy well and truly lost. And Wendy Darling writes of longing, and wears a gold button on a chain around her neck that once belonged to a notorious pirate captain. But the mists are building around WendyÃ¢â ¬â„¢s world. The storms have returned, and the winds are changing. Strange noises and shifting shadows re-awaken memories of a past they all thought theyÃ¢â ¬â„¢d left behind. Magic is stirring, crossing the boundaries between worlds, opening doors that were never quite locked, and filling the seas with promise Ã¢â ¬â œ and danger. Something is comingÃ¢â ¬Â¦ and itÃ¢â ¬â„¢s not leaving without what it came for.In this conclusive book in Heather Killough-WaldenÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Neverland series, Wendy and her friends face a future none of them ever could have imagined, and learn that everything they canÃ¢â ¬â„¢t find in the real world awaits them once more just past the second star to the rightÃ¢â ¬Â¦ and straight on Ã¢â ¬Ëœtil morning.

Customer Reviews

I must admit Heather Killough-Walden is one of my favorite authors and I have read everything that she has written that I can get my hands on. Forever Neverland was my favorite title that she has written of all her titles - now it’s Beyond Neverland - and I must admit I was saddened by how Forever ended, but was okay with the ending because it ended how it should have.Then there was the FABULOUS news that Beyond Neverland was coming out... I waited on pins and needles till the very end of 2013 for this book. Knowing that Heather is an amazing writer - in my opinion - I couldn’t, in good consciousness, start her book till I could give it the time it deserved, as well as knowing that I would have the worst book hangover ever.I was right - worst book hangover ever - and here I am not believing that this tale is done - hopefully it’s done just for now - and I sit here writing this review wanting to go back in time, to have Beyond Neverland in my kindle, brand new, seal not broken, to start again.I LOVED EVERY MOMENT... even when I got about 84% of the way through and was thinking NO!!! WHAT ARE YOU DOING HEATHER????But as usual, Heather sucked me, told and amazing tale I could picture in my mind, like the best movie ever, and I came out at the end, relieved, touched, fulfilled, heart still pounding, and hopeful for the next story with all of these amazing characters as well as any future character developments.And I LOVE, LOVE, LOVE that Hook is still as fabulous through-out Beyond Neverland as he was in Forever Neverland. Thank you Heather Killough-Walden for yet another amazing tale. I will still be one fan that will continue to stalk you though and facebook, anxiously awaiting the next tale that comes from your unbelievably wonderful imagination.So Thank you for starting my New Year off Right! Can’t wait to see what else will come out of Heather’s brilliant mind in 2014.

This story is told from even more points of view until everything coalesces in a reconstituted Neverland. This story is strong in action, intrigue, twists & skirting expectation. There is beautiful writing that creates strong moods & is very self-awareÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â •such as in the fight scenes when we are warned about what typical villains do before the villains of the scene up the stakes.What I found a bit lacking was the Wendy/James relationship. They don’t actually get that much time together. It’s mostly kind of "soul-matey" lust-from-a-distance. I guess since this story seemed so focused on Wendy I thought that we’d get to see what drew her in to James -- how he ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“hookedÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â• her beyond his blue eyes. Their moments they did have together were great.It’s kind of ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“extreme YAÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â• meaning characters barely get a chance to kiss even when they are both in their 20s.

so this book made me cry like a babyÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| which I think deserves a good rating because it hit me so hardÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| but, though, the beginning did snag me in and I loved seeing how everyone was both trying to move on from Neverland but still very haunted by itÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| it was like they were all hoping it might come back and scared of what would happen if it didÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| it did begin to lose pace a little when the mysterious fog came and they all sensed that Neverland was reformingÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| during that time it felt a little dragged out as she told of each characters experienceÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| they were at least each rather different and excitingÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| I found myself wishing the story would hurry up and get to the pointÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| once they got to Neverland it was much betterÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| it was like Neverland 2.0 ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| and so it was the same but with new dangers and new tricksÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| it was a good sequel and even had an interesting ending that leaves a chance for a next bookÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| which I wouldnÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t mindÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| but it could end here and still be goodÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â| altogether worth the readÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â|

Let’s see, how can I put everything I am feeling about this book into words.Amazing, Wonderful, Heartbreaking and Heart Healing.I was waiting on baited breath for what felt like an eternity for Beyond Neverland. I have read a lot of books, more than I can say, and Forever Neverland is by far my favorite book EVER! .... Well it was. Now Beyond Neverland has taken that treasured spot. Heather Killough-Walden tied up a lot of loose ends from the first book very nicely as well as opening up a whole new set of questions that may or may not be answered. I don’t know if this was the last in this series or if there is anymore, but the way it ended, it could go both ways. Now I am not going to say anything about what happens in the book because I dont want to give it away. I will say that the things I wanted to happen happened, and I screamed, laughed, cried (a lot), felt myself smiling like a moron, and cheered out loud throughout the book.Will I recommend this to people I know? A big whopping YES, and people I don’t know as well!!!Will I reread both Forever Neverland and Beyond Neverland again? Probably more than I would like to admit. :-)Do yourselves a faver and read this book!!!

I glanced into this series because I like Heather Killough-Walden’s books. I was hooked from the very beginning and although I think her stories are great, this one surpasses them all. I laughed, I sighed and cried happy and sad tears. This one a perfect ending and beginning of a truly classsic tale. I wish I could get everyone to read it!

I have to say I loved this book! I read it all in one day because I couldn't put it down. I originally wanted to take my time with it to savor the story but I was like a little kid when they find something interesting. I had to find out what happened to my favorite characters and I wasn't disappointed. I love Hook! Wendy was my second favorite. This story clears so many questions up that I had from the first book. Heather is one awesome writer the way she brings all the characters to life and the locations are so vivid. Thank you Heather :)
