Back Cover: Watch out! The Timberline twins are on the loose. Bryce and Ashley are ATV-riding tweens from Colorado who unearth action-packed mystery and adventure wherever they go. From clearing the name of a local miscreant to thwarting a gold-stealing heist, the twins' growing faith and the strong example of their parents guide them through even the most life-threatening situations. With the trademark page-turner style used by Jerry Jenkins and Chris Fabry in the Left Behind: The Kids series, these fast-paced books will keep even reluctant readers on the edge of their seats. Readers will definitely get hooked by the unbelievable cliff-hanger at the end of book one, "Haunted Waters." Perfect for ages 8-12. ~~~~A great mystery for tween readers as it is full of suspense, and keeps you guessing on every page. The two twins find themselves in a midst of a puzzling mystery wherever they turn, and though they are still getting used to their new stepfather and his daughter, a week with their younger brother and stepfather brings them all together as things become dangerous and threats are all around.I definitely enjoyed this series, especially a few years back as a "tween". :) These two authors together they write some of the best books ever, and I definitely suggest you read some of their writing.Overall I would rate this book 4 out of 5 stars

My son read this book in a matter of hours. It pulled him in and didn't let go. The end has a cliffhanger, to which he responded, "What?!?" He'll be moving right on to the next one. A book that can make a voracious reader out of a boy who prefers video games is 5-star in my opinion.

The dual narrative is a neat feature, but it causes really short chapters. The narrative itself isn't bad. The story isn't wrapped up neatly with this book, though, you need to keep reading in the series (I assume, I've only read this first book) for some details to be concluded. There is definitely a cliff hanger at the end of the book that will probably floor kids, but about which adults will likely be able to take some decent guesses. Overall, I recommend.

I still love kid's mysteries for some reason. I could escape in this book and become a youngster again. It reminded me of all the old black and white shows I watched as a child. I will buy more of these books.

My son is 9 years old, has ADHD and a hard time reading. He got a kindle for Christmas in hopes to help with his reading. As I was searching for books to download on I couldn't seem to find any he was interested in until I found the Red Rock Mystery books!! We listen to Family Life Radio and hear these stories at 7 pm eastern time and you just can't help, but to get sucked in to the mysterious events that go on in the stories. Even my 4 year old daughter loves to listen to them. So when I found the books I was so excited to see they were just as interesting as the ones on the radio. It puts you on your toes, making you not want to put your kindle down and just keep reading. My son loves to read it and can't just read 1 chapter, but ends up reading 4 or more! So happy we found these and we'll definitely be buying more.

Thirteen-year-old twins Ashley and Bryce TimberlineÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s mother remarries and the family relocates from the Midwest to Colorado. Attempting to integrate their blended family, stepfather, Sam, takes Ashley and Bryce to a remote mountain cabin get away where a mysterious intruder stalks the twins. After Sam scares the man off, they discover a priceless gold nugget was stolen from the museum theyÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢d visited earlier in the day, and they surmise a connection. But what does the stalker want? The man returns and after a harrowing fight and flight scene, leaves the family for dead after ramming their vehicle into a frigid lake where it sinks with all onboard. How will they escape? The authors artfully weave a strong spiritual thread with adjusting to a blended family and real life middle school ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“situationsÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â• into this high action, page turning suspense.

Largely enjoyable quasi-mystery book surrounding twin 13 year-olds and their involvement with regards to a stolen gold nugget and an unknown stalker while on vacation. Characters were likeable with a pleasing message having spiritual overtones. Ends on a cliffhanger making it a perfect lead into the subsequent sequel. A good book I would award 3.5 stars.

Love this series! I've read it with my son, and he's read through it alone too. It has a lot of excitement, humor, real life situations, morals, and is very action packed. In this book #2 you tie up a lot of the loose ends from book #1, and a lot more mystery opens up as well. You really get attached to the main characters. Very well written and enjoyable! We were so bummed when we read the last book.
