Customer Reviews

When I ordered this book on Calgary, I took a chance and I'm disappointed in the quality of information. There are no maps and few black and white photographs.The author doesn't provide much information but rather a vague guide to the city. Calgary is a major Canadian city and there are few guidebooks dedicated to it.I wished the author had included maps, photographs, and a list of the Calgary Walk of Fame inductees. I have been fascinated with city since the 1988 Winter Olympics as the host city.There is another reason too. From the late seventies to the nineties, the city hosted the longest running aerobics show, "It Figures" on Lifetime network with a perky upbeat Charlene Prickett, an American who married a Canadian and based her series there. She lives and promoted the city most of all as a livable, fun and friendly place. I hope she has a Walk on Calgary's Walk of Fame too.Calgary has expanded and grown since the 1988 Olympics. It has become a world class city with theaters and a popular filming location for television and films. The new series, "Fargo," and films like "Brokeback Mountain" have also filmed there on location.Other series like "Mr. Wizard's a World" and "Yan Can Cook" along with others filmed there in the 1980s.I have been wanting to go to Calgary since 1988 but I can't take this guide. It has very little information about shopping, eating, hotels, and other activities. I hope the author can revise and improve the next edition.

This is not a guide but merely a 41 page pamphlet. 2104. Not worth the price hopefully it’s just this book. I’d to think that there’s more to do in Calgary than this book tells us.
