I bought this for a gift but I think I'll be keeping it for myself. I didn't realize how tiny the pictures would be. Maybe 3x5. There is a lot of blank space on each page and then a pretty large date number. Way too tiny of spaces for my relative even if the picture is very simple. I might be able to do a few of them with fine liners. The images are cute, although they are repeated several times over throughout the calendar. The idea is very fun.

Great coloring calendar. I like to use gel pens to color this because of the smaller spaces. Also the pages are thin so markers will bleed through to the next page. All thaneeya mcardle fans will love this fun daily calendar.

I LOVE to color! I was so excited to see this opportunity to have a little picture to color every day.

Sadly, I have only colored two or three pages. The pack is ok. It has about 300 pages (weekends are on the same page). My issue with it is that with the size of the calendar and the plastic stand, it makes it difficult to position my hand in a comfortable position to color. Plus, some of the images are a little too small. It's just ok, but I'm not getting the kind of use I was hoping.

Love this calendar! Despite the British or Canadian spelling on the picture (which didn't bother me anyways) the calendar has US spelling. Color V. ColourThe pictures a cute and not too detailed to finish in a day.

Everything visually about this calendar is great. Perfect for small picture coloring. Pages were NUMBERED and ORDERED wrong for me. It goes Jan 1st-13th normal and then jumps to Feb 2nd-Feb 20th and then resumes back at Feb. 2nd. (not sure if rest of book has these issues but after that big of a mess up so early I did not individually check each page after March.) The main purpose of a calendar is to tell the date so even though pictures are great it is useless now.

I purchased this as a gift for someone who has rediscovered her love of coloring. She commented that the calendar had good images and was the perfect size to complete on a daily basis.

The images are great, good ink. My only complaint is the paper is so thin! So I removed a star :(

love it
