Synopsis

One of Puccini’s saddest, most beautiful scores, Suor Angelica was written as the middle installment in Il Trittico, but stands well on its own as a one act. Pianists and singers alike will delight in the sturdy spiral binding of this vocal score, which allows the book to lie flat open to any page. - 105 pages - Italian language only - Reprinted from Ricordi edition

Customer Reviews

My opera workshop is performing the English version of this, and I didn’t know this was an Italian score until it came in the mail. I wrote in all of the English (that was excruciating), but other than that, I love the binding and everything.

I am singing a small part in Suor Angelica and wanted a vocal score with only the Italian. This is perfect, a nicely bound score with very clear markings and a good, easily readable size. Very reasonable price and arrived quicker than promised.
