Synopsis

I haven’t done anything with my life. . . . I need to do something . . . like Mom and Dad and Hank do all the time. And I need to do it now. Meet 12-year-old KatÃ¢â ¬â •short for Katharine. She thinks she has two weeks to do something worthy of being adopted by her wonderful foster family. But cancer, medicine, and the older kids at Starlight Animal Rescue make it difficult for Kat to really help out around the farm. On top of that, she’s just started junior high and has to work on a project with the most popularÃ¢â ¬â •and demandingÃ¢â ¬â •girl in her class. When Kat accepts the role of Ã¢â ¬Å“cat shrinkÃ¢â ¬Â• for her classmates’ pets, could her success . . . or failure . . . be more than she can handle? Starlight Animal Rescue: Where problem horses are trained and loved, where abandoned dogs become heroes, where stray cats become loyal companions. And where people with nowhere to fit in find a place to belong.

Customer Reviews

When I started reading this book, I didn’t realize it was book three of a four book series. It is great as a stand-alone book, or if you're like me, now I want to read the whole series!Kat is in junior high, which is always a tough time in life, but to make it more difficult, she has cancer and it's not uncommon that she will vomit. A lot. So this is geared for girls 9-12 but because of that, I could just hear myself at that age saying "That's soooooooo gross!" Of course, for a child with cancer, this would be a welcome book because I've not read that many books that have the main characted as a teen with cancer, at least not when it discusses the effects of treatment such as the vomiting and she does remove her wig at one point as well as deciding "which hair" to wear for the day.. Another major issue addressed is foster children and adoption.In this book, Kat is going to be adopted and she feels like everyone in her family has done something great and she doesn't deserve to be a Coolidge. When a project at school comes up, she hopes it will proves she does deserve to be a Coolidge. She and Fiona decide to start a service to improve the behavior of their classmates' cats. Fiona has a cat that she calls dumb, and Kat takes it home to see how she can help it. In the end, will Fiona reject Kat as she has her feline cat?I very much enjoyed this book, and I think most tween girls would as well.

I loved this book! It shows that everyone deserves to be loved no matter what! Defiantly recommend this book to others.

So I read every book in this series and I myself am a horse girl so I liked the ones really evolving horses. But for somebody that loves cats, they have found there book of the century. Extremely well written and the plot has a wonderful feel that all books don't have.

Bought and loved all of them. Read them before giving them to my granddaughter who loves books about animals. These were also inspiring and taught us all (mom read them too) about the animals and also how people should treat people.

I give this book a 5 star rating because it shows how family can except you just the way you are. You don't have to do anything special to get someone else's last name.

I've been buying the whole Starlight Series for my 12 year old...she's adopted and our family is also very active in dog rescue so it is the perfect match! It's an easy read and quite enjoyable...I've read the books as well. They're really good books for kids to see others in a new light as well as learn compassion. Highly recommend this book as well as the whole series!

This book is great! Talks about how God helps Kat get through cancer and love it how Kat is always so joyful and telling others about Jesus!

This book deserves an A++ all I can say is that this book really touched my heart. An I will be recommending this to all my friends.
