Victoria Vebell is a widely admired illustrator who has worked in publishing, editorial, and advertising art for the past 38 years. She also teaches at the Pratt Institute in New York City. While her work has appeared in a variety of formats over the past three decades, she now specializes in paperback book covers where her work has won awards from The Society of Illustrators and clients include Bantam Doubleday Dell, Berkley Books, Harlequin, Simon & Schuster, Penguin/Putnam, Harcourt Brace, the Postal Commemorative Society, and General Foods. She is represented by The July Group in New York. She earned a Master of Fine Arts in digital illustration from the Art Institute of Boston at Lesley University and her BFA from the Philadelphia College of Art.

Rented it and it came without the access code. Don’t ever rent it, you’ll have a horrible time trying to do stuff from this textbook without that Course-mate stuff.

Great book. I had it for my Drawing class. But, you still have to have talent to draw, and passion to lean new things.

Great!

Good book, but teacher only used it once and now I can’t return it, even though nothings wrong with it.
