I like the cards themselves with the verses. These are made on a cardboard stock with are a solid color on one side with a printed verse and then on the reverse side, they with a verse and picture to color. They are very pretty and easy to color, no bleed through. However, when you say "CARDS" and you see the picture with the size and shape of a folding card, you'd assume they would come with envelopes and would be folded like a greeting card but they are not. This is a pack of 24 cards and they are so similar to the ones that come with 40+ cards which come in a very nice box and are close in price. These are one-inch longer but do not have much room for a note on the solid color paper because of the verse written on the back of the card. These also do not come in a nice box and they are not greeting cards with envelopes, and there are only 24 cards. Both sizes are nice to use as a card for a gift or to put on a refrigerator with a magnet attached to the back or to use as a "just because" little note.

Adorable scripture cards! These are perfect for a quick coloring project to frame and hang in a small space or drop into a child's lunchbox before school or tape to the bathroom mirror/refrigerator as a daily reminder. Poignant, familiar Bible verses that are beautifully designed and perfect for personalization. I love this set!

These are perfect for giving out with random acts of kindness - paying for the person behind you in a drive-thru, etc. if a friend or coworker needs a boost, an anonymous card may perk them up. I love to color but get overwhelmed by the size of adult coloring books. These beautiful cards are inspirational and provide just the right amount for a coloring fix!

These cards are relaxing to color, and they also help you to learn bible verses. I share my finished cards with a local nursing home. I give them to the activity director, and she gives them to the residents to help brighten their day. She said that they love receiving the cards.

These little cards are so much fun to color and slip into a letter or greeting card as a little surprise to the recipient. Everyone who I've sent these to say they treasure them, which makes me feel good because of the effort and time it takes to complete each one. But it's worth it!! Each card is a small treasure even for myself who loves to color each one.

These are great. Made from nice heavy cardstock.

A perfect advent gift for our grand kids.

I like to give these as pick me ups.
