Synopsis

Playing it safe may be the greatest risk of all ...Cate is sick of her boring job and stolid boyfriend. She craves excitement, and a trip to Panama to visit a wild and crazy friend from her college days is the perfect solution. The expat community there welcomes her, but Cate is more intrigued by Lexi, her friendÃ¢â ¬â„¢s beautiful but mysterious neighbor. The other woman seems the very embodiment of passion and adventure, and the more time they spend together, the harder Cate falls.Then she discovers LexiÃ¢â ¬â„¢s secret Ã¢â ¬Â¦ and has to make a wrenching choice. Will love prove stronger than heartache, or has Cate found her dream only to lose it?

Customer Reviews

When I started this book I thought it was a summer holiday fling book that ended in a perfect romance, and it was with a little twist in the end. Not bad at all, I’m keeping my eye on this author.

This was a really nice start to a romance. Lexi is perfect til she isn’t, hope it gets better for them. The thing that got me was the expats, I’m running off to Bali for a year or so and these people in the book are my worst nightmare. Same place every night and hammered all the time, lost their sense of adventure. I cringed reading this. Funny I thought of volunteering at a local restaurant to learn the cuisine. I guess Lexi beat me too it. Funny. Girls fall hard and these too certainly did. Like them both.

I was pleasantly surprised by this. It flowed very nicely and I was sorry when it ended.Will look for other works by this author.

Enjoyed this book with a twist in the middle things never turn out the way you think. On to book 2.

The chemistry between the characters is good but the plot is a little thin.

Still waiting for book 2...

I really enjoyed this book send would like a continuance! Please write more on the chwracters. I would like to learn more about Lexi.

Very good book was hard to put it down. Didn’t want it to end wish it didn’t have to . U brought both caricatures and everything around them to life
