Customer Reviews

Edited by Palmer so for edited versions this is the best of the ten I own. I have personally given up on Urtext editions because I like the fingering of experienced pianist over my own and Palmer a well experienced organist[primarily] then pianist has brilliant recommends for the time consuming step of fingering.

The music is written on rather cheap paper with not the darkest ink. The book is difficult to keep open on the piano stand. But, the notes seem accurate and some of the fingerings were helpful.

This edition of Chopin's Ballades is great. Notes are printed clearly. Fingerings are not confusing. Ballades are quite difficult so this book is suitable for late-intermediate to advanced pianists.
