Customer Reviews

If you're in the process of buying Stravinsky, you presumably don't need to be told that lots of his piano music is ugly, spare, and deformed (wherein, I suppose, lies some of its appeal). Needless to say, lots of it is also magical, beautiful and timeless. Both types of pieces grace this volume. The volume itself has excellent construction, print and quality. A recommended buy for the loyal Stravinsky fans out there, of which I count myself one.

This collection of Stravinsky's piano works is very high quality. The spine breaks gently to allow the pages to lie flat enough to sit properly on the piano's music rack. The paper is bright and smooth, and the type is very clear, sharp, and easy-to-read. And of course, the music is wonderful!
