Celia Gregory is a mosaic artist and director of MCC Mosaic and Design. Her work incorporates a variety of materials, including vitreous glass, ceramics and found objects. She works mainly to commission and has worked on the television series Home Front in the Garden. Caroline Suter is a writer, journalist and editor, and has developed a special interest in design for the house and garden. In the 1990s she was deputy editor of Country Homes and Interiors, before embarking on a freelance career, writing and working for magazines such as Homes and Gardens, Inspirations For Your Home, The English Garden and Garden Inspirations.

A very good book, not only a coffee table book but a good reference book offering varying and contemporary ideas on mosaics.Beautiful images and full of great tips that are realistic and creative.I can recommend this lovely book to anyone starting mosaics or someone who is well advanced in the medium.A delicious book!
