Synopsis

The story of the Horned God can be heard in various mythologies from around the world and like the Goddess he has become part of our psychological and spiritual heritage. Alan Richardson revisits his previous work on the male mysteries, Earth God Rising, adding a new commentary alongside the original text.Ã Â Readers of Alan Richardson have come to love his sartorial wit, honest assessment and fresh exploration. His expertise on magical matters and its practitioners make for an insightful commentary on male deity Ã¢â ¬â œ but always prodding readers to forge their own paths and make up their own minds. Earth God RisenÃ Â is a tour through the origins and archetypes of male spiritualityÃ Â for both new seekers and seasoned practitioners (of both sexes).

Customer Reviews

Ã¢â ¬Å“Richardson traces the presence of the male aspect of deity in Westerners through ancient Egypt and medieval metaphysics into modern mysticism and his own experience. This he does with scholarly skill and a pleasant Ã Â¬â uency. A delight to read and a worthwhile asset to possess. So much has been written of our Primal Goddess that it is refreshing to read of Her consort, the Primal God Ã¢â ¬â œ which the author eventually Ã Â¬Â•nds in himself after looking nearly everywhere else. Adventurous and fascinating.Ã¢â ¬Â•Ã¢â ¬â • William G. Gray
