Synopsis

After a heated argument Frank and Linda part ways, intending to never see each other again. Meanwhile, in the background, the story behind the mysterious "Mr. Omar" comes into view as his insidious plan unfolds and his ultimate destruction for America is revealed....Frank Richards has been an accountant for most of his life, but when the economy took a turn for the worse he was forced to take the only job he could find - driving tractor-trailers cross-country. Thanks to his parents being dyed-in-the-wool prepper and survival experts he’s learned enough to keep him alive. If he wants to make it from Maine to Texas, though, he’ll have to figure out how to get along with the mysterious stranger that he’s picked up along the way. Customer Reviews

This has become more of a spy thriller than a typical post-apocalyptic story but has been generally enjoyable. I’m not sure that I believe that Frank would have gone back after a woman he only met a few days before and is on an obsessive crusade, but he does add to the story.

Can’t miss with a MIKE KRAUS STORY. His characters are real characters. All events and situations seem as real. Stories in his books just me reading on and on. I have told everyone I know about these books. Looking forward to the next. Thanks.....

Love this author and look forward to his new releases!

I read this book straight through and it was as fast paced as the previous two. I wish they weren’t so short but I guess then I would have to wait longer for a new one. I hope to see the next one soon.

A very good read. I had to keep making time to get back to reading to story.

Love Mike Krauses books. Can’t wait for the next one.

The ongoing saga of Linda and Frank continues with them escaping Pittsburgh right before a dam bursts and floods the city. They resolve their differences and Linda persuades Frank to go to Washington DC to see Sarah, a woman who helped Linda with information before. In the meantime, her leg wound becomes badly infected, and they have to sneak into DC, which is now a "survivor city" with Marshall Law in effect. Because Linda is unconscious, Frank has to find Sarah’s address, steal a car, evade a tracking patrol, and get Linda to Sarah’s for help. They make it, but then it looks like Omar has gotten some nuclear materials into the US with the help of someone in government. What will happen next?

Linda and Frank are together again, the relationship is fragile but Frank is trying to take care of Linda as her leg becomes infected and he fears for her life. As her search for Omar falls apart yet again she ignores her worsening health and drives herself and Frank to locate Sarah, her last hope to find Omar and stop the destruction.As I read I find myself wondering how I would deal with this all too possible situation. Would I place my trust in the government, would I be an asset to my family? Scary scenario.
