Customer Reviews

Access Press is a team of writers from across the United States that travel frequently, and know what you want and need from a guidebook and what you don’t like and don’t need.

I love the Access series of city guides. They break a city down by its neighborhoods, then use color coding within the descriptive section to easily identify hotels, restaurants, museums, shopping and other sites of interest. Because the series editor and principal writer, Richard Saul Wurman, is an architect and designer, the guides are clear and crisp.I’ve been using Access Guides since the late 1970’s. They’re rigorously updated, and I’ve always found the restaurant reviews to be accurate and on the mark.
