Synopsis

The goal of this dictionary is to provide a genuine picture of the true Kabbalah. In the rare books that deal seriously with the subject, the concepts of the Zohar and the Kabbalah are often quoted but not explained. The study of Kabbalah involves a good comprehension of its general idea, as well as its details. To learn the Kabbalah, it is necessary to be familiar with its usual terms and appellations, because in the language of Kabbalah, particular expressions and metaphors, as well as anthropomorphisms are used. In this dictionary are explained the main concepts and expressions used in Hebrew and also in Aramaic. For words or concepts hard to understand out of context, examples are given of their usage in the Zohar or in other Kabbalah texts. Also included is a dictionary of acronyms, often found in the Zohar and other Kabbalah texts.

Customer Reviews

I am happy. I am a very busy person reading, studying and living. I don’t leave as many messages as I use to but this minimum is discouraging. I am happy with 99.999% percent of my books I order. The shippers are very good.

I do like this book very much but when studying Kabbalah Hebrew Letters are the foundation and a dictionary without the actual viewing of these letters within the word being defined is a HUGE... HUGE... lacking of information. This author chooses some but I say go the distance and do all. I have a small child’s level of ability to read and speak Hebrew but the Letters of Light are well known to me and the first word this book tries to define is hishtalshelot or particles of divine light that ARE the El (power) of Elohyim. Hishtalshelu in Hebrew Letter meaning is a sentence which reads... Hey Shin Tav Lamed Shin Lamed Vav Tav or Behold! Divide the Owner/Authority. Teach/learn division. Teach/learn to secure the Owner/Authority. Can you see that this first word in this dictionary means far more than just "the chain of events of creation". When the Letters of Light speak... they each have something to say and a word of Letters becomes a book of its own. I recommend the book by Aaron Raskin - Letters of Light also a kindle book. If this book was to update... ALL Hebrew words into their own Hebrew Letters is a must so we don't have to go to another source, while engaged in this book, to understand in depth the actual Hebrew word this book is trying to define. English... just doesn't work in Kabbalah! In my opinion, this only shows me that this author doesn't truly understand Who Kabbalah is. Yes this book can talk the talk of facts but it doesn't yet reveal the spiritual "Who" within the Mah (Mah = what and how). Knowing the Who makes you a child of the King and through His guidance and only His guidance will you ever know the Letters of Light that are foundation of all things seen and unseen... Kabbalah.
