I had three days in Mexico City, and this little guide did a good job pointing me to the key places to visit and providing background information. I would highly recommend it if you're trying to prioritize places to visit, as I was, and are not familiar with Mexico City, like me.

It is small enough to easily take with you anywhere, and as long as this is the only guide you are using it is outstanding. Provides great summaries of the top places to see in Mexico City. I found it very useful.

Another fine Top 10 guide. Although the web has so much info, it's nice to have a small, compact, graphic-rich guidebook in your travel bag. Highly recommended.

I am giving this only two stars because the print is so small I can hardly read it. If you wear cheaters to read, this is not the book for you. I give credit to this book for giving the top ten of everything. However, since I am seasoned beyond the age of being 'eagle-eyed' I am afraid I will need to bring along a large magnifying glass to see the print, maps and photos. I will now be searching for another guide book with larger print as I don't want to carry a large magnifying glass to see my guidebook pages as I explore this exciting city. Pass this one up if you don't like reading fine print.

Beautiful guide. Well-organized and well-written. Nice photos. But: teeny little maps and no overview map, which I really missed. Oddly, no mention of Uber, which we used extensively and was quite cheap (like a 30-minute ride for $5). I'd buy it again though.

This is actually my 5th or 6th book with Top 10. I just love it. Very straightforward and easy to ready. I'm not the type that needs a ton of information to read. I'm just a regular tourist and need to see the top attractions of a place i visit. I usually have short trips so the amount of information i need is just about right. Images can use some update.

Excellent guidebook and had a handy foldable laminated map that was so convenient when using while walking on the street. I highly recommend this guide, it was great.

Very useful for travelers with limited time to spend in a hugely interesting city. I would have appreciated a bit more history of the area, but I recognize that there is 'only so much' one can do with a volume like this. We have used these Eyewitness Top Ten guides in other cities and will continue to do so.
