Michael Kelly is a freelance editor and writer, focusing on such diverse general interest topics as travel, sports, and religion. A seasoned traveler, he has lived on both U.S. coasts and in the U.S. Midwest before contentedly settling down with his wife and daughter in Toronto. As an editor, Mike has contributed to literally dozens of For Dummies books.

I have looked at SEVERAL Toronto guidebooks and I just couldn't find one that I liked...until I picked up this book (and bought it) It was both thorough and concise, skipping the long narratives and in depth history that you find in so many other books.This book even includes post-it flags to mark your favorite pages. (I can't believe no one else ever thought of that!) It was a very nice and useful touch!If you plan on spending some time in Toronto (and day tripping here and there in the surrounding areas i.e. Niagara Falls etc.) this is the only guidebook you will need!
