Customer Reviews

Borch, a cartographic publishing company from Germany, makes tough, long-lasting maps with non-toxic, environmentally responsible lamination material.

It’s a great map and is good when travelling and touring West Berlin and Mitte area. Shows all major shopping areas like the Europa Centre and "Kudam." However, the map neglects East Berlin and does not have the Schoenhauser Allee area up north like the Freytag and Berndt map of Berlin. If Borch had given the Schoenhauser Allee area with the Eberswald metro station, I would have given this map 5 stars.

Has so much detail it is difficult to read. I actually ended up using the ones from my travel books.

My favorite plastic maps. These are light and are easily carried in your purse or backpack.

The map is quite nice, but you don’t really need it. Every time you turn around in Belin, somebody is handing you another free paper map.

A very detailed and clear-to-read map. Many hotels and points-of-interest are noted, as well as transportation lines. It should be easy to navigate the city with this map.

it was excellent

Nice laminated map, easy to read, and works well when you don’t have your smart phone map accessible!

Great Map. Easy to read . Weatherproof . This is a much easier to read map than Streetwise.
