Customer Reviews

A collection of photographs that mostly captures Asheville’s eclectic heart. The downtown area and Biltmore Village are well-represented. Maybe even over-represented. Some photos wander a little far afield for me to consider them a part of Asheville impressions; Chimney Rock and the Joyce Kilmer Forest are each over an hour’s drive away. But it’s still an interesting collection, and I’m happy to add it to my guest room for out-of-town guests to get an idea of what this nearby city is all about.
