Great book, I am a beginner as far as tarots and it was very easy to read and the little spells included were a bonus! Skye Alexander is an expert in witchcraft and this book was another good one by her!

Great book with history and explanation of the tarot, a plus for the new reader

Over all a very clear and concise book. The author begins with a history and then delves into each of the suits and major arcana. I like the addition of the quotes in various sections however I did not like the look and feel of the book itself. My copy had the pages put together in a strange way which made them stick out as though the book was assembled incorrectly. I found that distracting when I was holding the book. The content however was accessible by novice and pro alike. I feel that adding the suggestion to reach out to current readers a great additional that I think is missed by other authors. We have a great deal to learn from those who came before us. A wealth of knowledge lies there and I was glad to see someone finally point that out in one of these books.

Excellent book I am using it for Astrology/Tarot class

Excellent book! Very good for an absolute beginner, which I am not, but it is still useful. Thank you. I will buy from this seller/author again.

In a previous post I talked about "The Mode Guide to Witchcraft" and how much I loved it. This book again DID NOT DISAPPOINT. When i began my journey as a witch, the first thing I took a hold of were the tarot cards. after that I dived into the rest of my studies. I got recommended this book from my previous purchase and I was anxiously waiting for it.Since I'm still at the beginning I have this book everywhere I go.I even started to do readings on family and friends and this book is right by my side lol.Again I Highly recommend it its good , but do not take it seriously . if your new to tarot cards , it not a bad thing , but there are better places to look for greater insights into the mirror of the minds eye.... tarot
