Synopsis

Ever wanted a guide to a place, so graphic that you could all but fake being there? Go no further! This is the guide for people who want to stay home but pretend to friends / family they have been some place new. If you dock in Cobh Harbour but want to stay on the ship - this guide has everything you need to convince others you have been to Cork city.The author was born, raised and lives in Cork City. This is an electronic guide to Cork City and the surrounding areas including comprehensive 11 slide shows of most major sites (between 10 and 40 slides per show). You can truly judge which places are of most interest to you!There is also the more basic guide available without the slideshows as a reduced price.The guide also includes hyperlinks to many websites so that up to the minute information is available.The guide begins with a brief introduction to Cork, how to get to Cork and how to get about the city. There are also to suggestions on where to stay and where to eat.The core of the guide book is where visitors should see in the city. There is a hyperlink to any site, official or unofficial, providing information about fees and opening hours.Information on how to access places outside the city that are of interest is the second largest section of the book. These include Blarney, The Jameson Distillery, Kinsale and Cobh.Toward the end of the guide there is a discussion of sporting venues and shopping (including how to reclaim tax for non-EU visitors) to help visitors who want something special.Enjoy your trip to Cork - electronic or in person!
