Synopsis

Put your trivia acumen to the test with this perennial bestseller. How many U.S. presidents was FDR related to, either by blood or by marriage? Which entire European country is available to rent by the night? And for St. PatrickÃ¢â ¬â„¢s Day, What are the odds of finding a four-leaf clover? The surprising questions keep on coming, with subjects ranging from pop culture to science, sports, literature, and more.

I buy this every year for my grandparents for Christmas. They love it because they have a tradition every morning of "cheersing" with their coffee mugs and telling each other the date, so they can always keep up to date (which I think is adorable). They love having this calendar because they say it keeps them thinking. Also, it has a lot of space on each page to write on in case they want to write down doctors appointments or other notes. However, the only reason I gave it 4 stars and not 5 is because they changed the color behind the numbers this year from yellow to red. Not a problem for most people, but my grandpa is red/green color blind, so he can’t see the numbers now. Again, not a problem for most people, but he was really disappointed that they changed it, so my grandma has to read it to him each morning. It used to be yellow so he could see it. However, they do love it normally, so I'll buy it again next year. I just hope it's not red again.

I purchase this for my father each year and occassionally he will call me to inform me of today's trivial for which I don't know the answer. But I do guess. A great informational and conversational tool. THANKS

Gift for Christmas, looks fine cant say more at this time since not using product entertaining; great stocking stuffer

I've been getting these for the last few years. I love this calendar!

Buy this every year for my son. Great trivia calendar. Would recommend to those that enjoy learning a new fact daily.

Great gift starting about 4 years ago. Husband loves it for his desk and asks for one every year.

esoteric and interesting content. thumbing through the calendar, I didn't spot any trivia that I already knew.
