Over the last twenty years, Dr. Jeff Myers has become one of AmericaÃ¢â ¬â„¢s most respected authorities on Christian worldview, apologetics, and youth leadership development. He is the author of several books and the president of Summit Ministries. In his appearances on the FOX News channel and on various TV programs, Dr. Myers offers humor and insight from a Christian worldview. He holds a doctor of philosophy degree and teaches leadership courses through College Plus and Belhaven University. Dr. Myers and his family live in Colorado.

Few books on culture and worldview offer much in the way of tangible use. The Secret Battle of Ideas is a great way for me to think about what worldviews actually do in shaping how I live in the world. I work at a Christian boarding school in Fergus Falls, MN that has over 7 countries represented in any given year. There are a lot of different ideas and views of the world floating around. What the Secret Battle has done for me is given me a better framework to erect in asking what worldviews and ideas actually do for us. I appreciated how this book points the worldviews to the point of salvation, asking us where, how, and in what we find our identity and ultimately salvation in.This was an accessible read that was fun and uplifting. While I didn't need my dictionary, and rarely used Siri to help me on concepts, this book did open some deeper thinking into worldview analysis while also keeping the focus on Jesus Christ. I recommend this to anyone looking for a low-entry way to talk about worldview with students, friends, or coworkers (because we all know that your coworkers aren't your friends...)

ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“Are you a parent who wants your children to recognize and choose truth and to follow Christ with increasingly strong commitments? Do you want to disciple them to a richer understanding of the Christian faith? Then you must read this book. Dr. Myers uses easy-to-understand language, vibrant illustrations, a virus analogy that makes total sense, and organization around four ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Å“lÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â• words that makes his ideas easy to follow and compare. Your childrenÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s worldview is what determines which ideas they believe and how they choose to live their lives. ItÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s critically important. If they donÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t believe in the Christian worldview, youÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ll learn how to guide them to one. If itÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s theirs already, these truths will help you parent them so it stays strong and they donÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t waver when peers and elements of the culture want to infect them with dangerous ideas about God. Read this practical, important book!ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â•

Jeff Meyers has written a book every Christian should read. I have been studying worldviews for several years, after I understood that a person's worldview is what Christians mean when they say that our testimony must be demonstrated in our lives. Many, many Christians have absorbed many mental constructs from contemporary culture that they do not realize are at best distractions from faith in Christ and at worst actively separating people from Christ. This author presents the worldviews that compete for our attention and dissects them with the Sword of the Spirit, biblical teaching. I recommend this book to every Christian. Read it with your Bible open. This is not an opinion statement. It is a Bible study.

Dr. Jeff Myers has written an excellent book that brings his own encounter with difficult life experiences into a practical look at what works and doesn't work within society itself. His examination of the various worldviews reveals that much of what we think and what we are taught as "truth" isn't truth at all and isn't even successful in world or life applications. Thank you Jeff for being vulnerable and helping so many understand God's plan for man and the proper view we should take as we encounter life too!

One of the most articulate resources I have ever had the pleasure of reading. Well written, insightful, and I dare say transformative. One of Myers' best works yet! Highly recommended!
