Love this book! Got if for my daughter for her b-day. She's always been a fan, but we had just purchased summer concert tickets, so I thought the book would be a timely birthday gift. (Given that she'd recently downloaded any remaining Ed Sheeran songs that she didn't already have on her phone.) But now she's been to busy with schoolwork to read the book, so I 'borrowed' it and read it myself. The narrative is very interesting, humble, and genuine. I REALLY enjoyed reading this history, and only wish that there could be an addendum to include Multiply and Divide. Maybe a volume 2 someday? :-) Also, the illustrations are beautiful (VERY talented artist!), and really add to the story. After reading this book, you'll want to hang out at the pub with your new buddy, Ed. Would highly recommend this book to any Ed Sheeran fan.

A great read, though nothing new to be learned....Artworks included are fantastic!Recommended to anyone and everyone for sure!

My 16 year old daugher is one of Ed's biggest fans for years. She was so excited to receive this book I can't even begin to tell you. The pictures in the book are beautiful and the story is wonderful of Ed's journey. Obviously, anyone interested in buying this book loves Ed Sheeran! Great present for anyone of loves Ed!

I couldn't put it down once I started reading. I've always been a huge fan of Ed Sheeran, even before he became famous in the United States. It was very interesting to learn more of his story and rise to fame and how continues to remain humble throughout it all. His passion and the pure heart and soul that goes into his work has always pulled on my heart strings as a fan. I recommend this book to any of his fans and any aspiring singer-songwriters. He's truly inspirational and Phillip Butah's art is breathtaking. These two were an amazing combination for anyone that appreciates art.

Love this book! Perfect for anyone who can't get enough of Ed!

I bought this for my girlfriend, I didn't actually read it because I'm not an Ed Sheeran fan but I have to admit the artwork in the book is very good, also the book's hardcover looks very nice, i'm sure a fan should enjoy this book.

Very much enjoyed this book. I respect this guy tremendously as an artist and the book is visually pretty dope. You should get it. It’s nice to hear not everyone’s journey is easy for them. Give’s us regular artists hope or whatever. Talent can be learned if you put in the work. That’s my biggest take away.

Enjoyed the book thoroughly because you are able to understand the perseverance he had to become the artist he is today. I also enjoyed all of the artwork displayed in the book. WHAT TALENT!
