Synopsis

MÃƒÂ©taphore de l’existence par les simples figures de l’arbre et de l’homme, L’Arbre gÃƒÂ©nÃƒÂ©reux est l’histoire "d’un arbre qui aimait un petit garÃƒÂ§on". Le petit garÃƒÂ§on devient jeune homme, le jeune homme un adulte, l’adulte un vieillard. Ãƒâ ¬ chaque ÃƒÂ©tape de son existence, l’homme trouve auprÃƒÂ¨s de l’arbre le rÃƒÂ©confort nÃƒÂ©cessaire lui permettant de poursuivre sa quÃƒÂªte sur le chemin de la vie.L’illustration pleine page monochrome joue de la disproportion de l’arbre et de l’enfant. Le trait discret de Silverstein, auteur et illustrateur amÃƒÂ©ricain, peut rappeler celui d’un SempÃƒÂ© ou d’un Piem. Quelques traits de plume suffisent Ãƒ faire surgir sur la page l’intensitÃƒÂ© de la relation d’intimitÃƒÂ© entre le jeune garÃƒÂ§on et l’arbre. Dans ce face-Ãƒ -face, l’arbre est rendu aussi expressif que l’enfant. De fait, le lien qui unit l’enfant Ãƒ l’arbre est profond, c’est-Ãƒ -dire que cet attachement n’est pas seulement sensible, il est aussi le lieu d’une interrogation sur notre sort car l’arbre ne peut donner Ãƒ l’homme que ce qu’il a. En retour, ce qui fait la grandeur de l’homme, c’est prÃƒÂ©cisÃƒÂ©ment la prise de conscience de cette richesse. Une trÃƒÂ¨s beau conte d’essence philosophique pour tous les publics. Ãƒâ ¬ partir de 5 ans. --This text refers to an alternate Hardcover edition.

Customer Reviews

We are bilingual and need both French and English books for our children. I am happy to report that the French version of The Giving Tree is well translated, and as captivating in French as it is in English. Unlike many French children's books on , this one is well-written in correct and charming literary French. It is also of excellent binding and quality (unlike other French children's books on ; cough cough Dr. Seuss, je vous regarde). I am so thankful we found this edition, I think it will be a wonderful edition to any francophone's collection.

This book, was sent to a missionary friend who is creating a library for the people of a village in Haiti. One little girl found it "sad." However, the book, they said, arrived in very good condition from the seller so I'm pleased with that. I like the story of The Giving Tree because it tells us we can keep on giving even when we may think we have nothing left to give. Service is for a lifetime.

This French version of Shel Silverstein's beloved children's story will be familiar because the illustrations are the same as the English edition. I was disappointed that it is in paperback and is not as large as the version in English. I purchased it to give to an American family with three young daughters that is hosting a little girl from Haiti who is in U.S. for surgery and recuperation from injuries caused by the earthquake there. I wanted something she could understand and that would be familiar to her little American hostesses. It certainly filled the bill on both counts, so I guess the size was not really an issue. Buyers should be aware that this is a smaller format.

I adore the works of Shel Silverstein and I desperately want to speak and understand the French language.. This book is perfect for a novice like me and the story is wonderful and heartwarming..

Was a perfect gift

Good translation. / Bon transduction.

My friend loved it!

the perfect gift for my nephew in kindergarten who is in a french school in san diego, calif. plus he says he loved the story...
