Customer Reviews

I love the story the most because it teaches children about vanity, being able to admit it when youÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢re wrong, and the importance of loyalty to friends.I bought this book for my 6 yr.old nephew.Yesterday, my big sister asked me to babysit him and of course, he asked me to read the book to him. I told him to get ready for bed. Then I sat next to him, leaning against the pillows, and read him the story.My nephew asked questions while I read to him and afterward we talked about why Moon Glow gave up her beautiful new tail after everything she went through to get it and why she decided not to go back to the sea witch for another one.We love the pictures too!The warm colors of the adorable illustrations make it fun for kids to look at too!

I was looking for a birthday present for my twin nephews and found this book. Two days later I got a call from my brother who really liked the book I sent his boys. He spent an enjoyable evening reading the story to his twins and thanked me for such a nice gift. Yesterday I went to visit them and my nephews asked me to read them the story about the cute little fish. We sat together on the couch as I read it, and for a moment I forgot I was a grown woman. I felt like a little girl, lost in the fairy tale I was reading.I warmly recommend this book. A great gift for kids, nieces, nephews and grandchildren!

What makes this book special is that itÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s not just a very sweet story, but also has a moral which the older child can relate to. ItÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s not how you look that matters but whatÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s inside that counts. ThatÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s what we should be teaching our children.

At last an original story! I read it just now and would recommend it anyone with children between the ages 3-10. The story is an adventure, taking place at the bottom of the ocean. A girl fish is out to search for the great sea witch, to replace her tail with a prettier one.The tail is a great read, intertwined with lots of hummor, and nice illustrations. Enjoy!

The book gently teaches how a dream can make you braver, to avoid the dangers, find new and loyal friends and at last to defeat all the enemies.Very enlightening book.I wish the author to continue the amazing book that makes our children kinder and braver.

I read this book to my pre-school age grand-kids before bedtime. They listened, asked questions, loved the colorful pictures of the fish, and made me read it one more time before lights out! IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢m sure IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ll be reading it to them again and again for a while!

This is a charming little story, suitable to read to children from around 2 upwards, and for them to read themselves later.The graphics are extremely colorful and are delight, a lovely accompaniment to sweet book.

Best gift ever!My mom just sent this book for my young daughter. The story teaches kids great lessons for life. My daughter just loves the pretty pictures of the fish and the Great Sea Witch too!
