Customer Reviews

This is one of the best books I have read.I too am a nurse,and have nothing but respect and awe regarding the intelligence and ability to function in that helicopter dealing with life and death. I congratulate Janice for her career and for writing this wonderful book. I just know she will handle her present illness fine. God bless you Janice.

I have just retired from a 25 year nursing career, most of which was in the ICU but 10 in the ER (in Brookside hospital no less, mentioned in this book). This brings it all back. We had our share of burn patients coming in by helicopter, and I probably turned on the lights for Calstar a few times when they came there to recon with AMR. I always wanted to be a flight nurse and would go for it if I had it over.

She Has Led An Exciting Life. She has worked at a great help to society in saving lives. Her life has had highs and lows. The highs being in a field that helps save lives and the lows in her own struggle with pain and sickness.

It takes special people to do this kind of work. My hat is off to each of them. Glad they are there!

As a nurse myself, I LOVED this book. Couldn't put it down had it finished in less than a week.

The accounts of her experiences are as riveting as they are heartbreaking and motivating. I'm currently an EMT, but I hope to soon become a flight paramedic. This book has been a valuable tool for me to use in preparation for a career in flight medicine.

My mother worked as a Flight Nurse when I was young, and I never quite understood what she did. Reading this book gave me great insight to what she did and what she experienced. Including, "Tubing the Goose." I suggest this book to anyone who enjoys a good read, or wishes to see through the eyes of one of the many heros of our world.

LOVE IT. recommend to everyone in the healthcare field
