Synopsis

Locates and indexes more than 1,400 four-year schools in the US and Canada. Inclusion of schools on the map was based on a variety of criteria, including size; proportion of student body from out of region; national prominence in specialized fields; in major sports; and in major published rankings; and affiliation with a representation of religious groups. Index data includes undergraduate admissions phone and website, enrollment, gender ratio, and control or affiliation (public/private).Used copies of this map might be an older edition. New copies purchased from should be the most current edition which is c.2014.

Great product! I use all of the time with my students!

I bought this map to help plan a college trip but it is actually great to have for your student to be able to hang it up on the wall as he/she plans out the schools that he would like to apply to.

At my charter school with several first generation college bound students, I have used the map to show the whole student body just how broadly this senior class has looked. Color-coded pins indicate applications and acceptances.

I found this to be a very unique type of map! For anyone who wants to know where colleges and universities are at a glance, this map is perfect for them! I gave this to my son and he was very glad to have it!

I really like this map. As an international careers counsellor the map provides me with a wealth of information. At a snapshot, I can establish the location, size, demographic, public or private etc. of each major institution in the US. It's on my wall as a constant reference.

This has been a go-to for our family from planning our daughter's college visits to getting a sense of a college's surroundings. It's a great easy visual tool.

This is a great tool to see where all colleges and universities are located relative to each other and home.

enough information of universities and colleges in the US. very helpful for people who are seeking for a suitable one.
