PopOut was founded in 1993. Having spotted a need to cure what he calls 'Map Stress Syndrome' after watching numerous tourists around the City of Bath, England, battling with over-sized maps, founder Derek Dacey recalled the invaluable miniature charts he used during his days as a commercial pilot. Aiming to bring this level of usability to the city map market, a small team of designers was recruited to realise what would soon become the PopOut. 1993 saw the release of the first ever PopOut Map Bath, which was sold in the gift and souvenir trade across the city. Hot on the heels of this initial success, a research trip to the USA culminated in a redesigned layout, combining strong photo images, high quality printing and laminated covers Ã¢â ¬â œ standards which are still adhered to today. That research trip also saw the birth of the first US destinations covered in the PopOut range Ã¢â ¬â œ Boston, NYC, Philadelphia and Washington DC. Launched in the new style in the US they enjoyed instant success in the gift and souvenir trade.

I wrote a longer review for the London map, (I bought both and used them extensively on our recent trip to the U. K.), so check that, but the bottom line is that the maps were sized perfectly to be easy to carry along in a purse or pocket, were very easy to use and extremely helpful to have along. I was very glad that I had them and used them many times each day.

Very handy, folds nice but the print is a wee small for eyes 45+

Too large to carry with you.Good for planning the day.

Love how small but informative and easy to pop up and use!
