Customer Reviews

This e-book has a lot more information about the parks than the Lonely Planet guide for Tasmania, so I'm OK that I bought it, but it still has two major flaws and the biggest flaw is really significant: the maps are not expandable so you can't zoom in on anything. The result is that the scale is so poor that the maps are really not of any practical use at all. The second flaw is that there aren't many pictures - typically one per park but often none at all. Aside from that, given that it's specifically about the parks, it wouldn't be unreasonable to expect a serious chapter on each park with even more detail than what's offered here - after all, besting Lonely Planet is not exactly a high bar.
