Synopsis

Seventeen-year-old Decker Stanton has a great life. He’s captain of the wrestling team, the school’s greatest wide receiver in years, and has a wall of trophies to prove he’s the best at everything he does. He drives a new Camaro, has tons of friends, and is dating the head cheerleader who is eager to give herself to him. But Decker also has a secret: he’s gay, and there’s a-whole-nother life he longs to live--one in which he’s dressed in drag.After Decker’s secret is revealed to his middle-of-nowhere, Bible-thumping town, he finds himself homeless and ostracized. He discovers when there is nothing left to lose, it’s time to embrace his true identity, and there’s no better way to do that than by competing in the Miss Prisney beauty pageant that takes place four days before his senior prom. And his main competition? His girlfriend, Camille.Reader discretion advised for adult situations, violence, and strong language. Recommended for ages 16 and up.
