Synopsis

Frances and Agnes are sisters, women who love the concept of love and want the best for those around them. They never hesitate to make sure that their loved ones are paired up with the perfect match. Suzie is Frances and Agnes's niece. She is a single mother of a fifteen year old boy, and she never takes time out for herself. If Frances and Agnes could have their way, she would get the chance to fall in love and have the life she always dreamed of. James is the local owner of the cattle supply and merchant at the Landchester market. As far as Frances and Agnes is concerned, he is also a perfect match for their niece. Can Agnes and Frances pair the couple and make a love connection?

Customer Reviews

The Amish Matchmakers by Esther Weaver is a very good story about a young women who left the community an was very afraid to come back. She knew that by coming, would cause a lot talk about her an her Aunts, who still lived in the community an she didn't want to hurt them one little bit. Susie's aunts had to beg and beg her to come back and be with those that loved her and after a while that is just what she finally did. Well things went on day by day then one day Susie's aunt's found out their Nephew having such a love for his garden. They talked to him about taking his veg. to the market also how would, he would like to enter in a contest at the market not sure about that but later he did and also gained a new friend. Now it is time for me to leave the rest up to each reader to enjoy and make up their own minds about what a great book this is, I am also asking that you make a review about what you have read so that others will see what they are missing if they do not read. Will you also send a message to the author letting her know that you liked the book an then by mouth tell your friends.

Just finished this short story, by Esther Weaver, called "The Amish Matchmakers". This is book #1 in the "Landchester Amish Matchmakers series". About 119 pages, you'll be at the end before ya know it! And cheering Matthew on! When TWO Aunts get together...watch out, anything can happen! Don't want to give anything away...so you'll have to read it for yourself! So...on to book #2 for me!! Enjoy Enjoyed the characters and storyline. Would have preferred more Christian principles at work in the lives of the characters. Needs to be added.

5 Stars because I enjoyed reading this book very much and highly recommend this book to all Amish book readers.

Story line was good. Just had several misspellings.

I have read the other match maker books and I have never been disappointed.

Suzie and her teenage son, Matthew live in Landchester. She is very protective of him; as she is a single mother. Matthew is self conscious of his limp, so he doesn't socialize with other teenagers. Issue's aunts invite him to the farmer's market and his life changes drastically.

The book ended. I tried to sign up for the author's list with no luck. An error message every time.
