Excerpt from The Rhine, Vol. 1: From Its Source to the SeaThe great rivers of the world must have added a charm to Nature even in the first era of Creation. Customer Reviews

To be clear, this review is not about the text itself, but specifically about this reproduction from Forgotten Books. Reproduction of the text is clear - that is its only virtue. During my first reading the binding split open and pages became loose. Reproductions of the original illustrations are poor and the captions that accompanied the original illustrations don’t exist. I have a volume 2 in the original 1899 edition that is wonderful: This edition is trash - don’t waste your money.
