Hard to play, yet simple-sounding. Sorenson's super talented though. Someone like me needs something with more bang for the effort though, or something simpler to play if it will sound that simple. I think the paper's thin.

these selections are pastoral and lilting. yeah, let me just say it...they're depressing. lovely music, but i probably will not be able to use them often. great background for funerals, and i can really picture a tear-jerker movie during this music. a lot of talent and expression here, and one would need to be proficient and artful to pull them off. if you have need for this type of performances...go for it.

I love this music. Beautiful arrangements. Challenging with all the key changes. Would like to have more of her music.
