A Must have for every wedding and fashion photographer out there. This was recommended in several trade journals as a must have - I totally agree and enjoy just looking through this for inspiration. I love the old school looks and the high end looks.This book is a fabulous studio coffee table book for every client to look through while they are visiting your studio.It will give you several classy and unique ideas to inspire your clients..

I absolutely love this book! It is beautiful and the pictures are amazing. Great insight to the history and designers of some of the most gorgeous bridal gowns.

Beautiful photographs, surprisingly entertaining text, pure fantasy for ordinary folk like me. I found it on at a great sale price and tooka chance because many great photographers have worked for Vogue. It’s not a wedding planning book; it’s crammed full ofgorgeous creations by well known fashion designers, worn by super models, celebrities, royalty. Some of the weddings photographed are real; some areflights of fancy created for the pages of Vogue. The text accompanies the large, mostly full color photographs, and I love the descriptions of"simple" weddings in a villa by the sea or a medieval church in the woods. Includes historical photos as well as more recent brides.

Depending on thereader's point of view, it is very good----or very disappointing---that it was published preKim and Kanye but both Kates(Middleton and Moss) are included. I hope there will be an updated edition which will include equally glamorous and fanciful same sex weddings.

Ever since I married in August 2014 I have been slightly obsessed with wedding gowns. I purchased this book to fulfill the wedding fantasy of beautiful gowns and this book did not disappoint.Lovely pictures showing beautiful, elegant, modern and unusual gowns from royalty to designers to high society.A great addition to anyone's library who has an interest in all things 'wedding' related.

AMAZING/GORGEOUS Photos! I purchased this book for a project on wedding gowns for my history of costume class and it was a huge help. This is a great coffee table book for anyone who loves weddings or photography.

I LOVE, Love,LOVE this book! Loaded with gorgeous Vogue fashion photography and wedding pics. A feast for the eyes and soul!!
