Customer Reviews

My seven year old son loves these and listens to them before bed. Great stories with adventure, but not super scary. He has been listening to them since he was 5 1/2 years old.

We love the Jonathan Park adventures!! We listen to them in the evening for family devotions. Each one seems to just get better and better. This one was exceptional as they journeyed through history visiting different scientist and the role each one has played whether positively or negatively.The drama keeps the younger kids on the edge of their seats - not to mention the adults - and yet there is so much to learn in the story that you are not going to get it all the first time through. They will definitely be something that we will have to go through again. It has also helped us to look at science as fun and adventuresome. We are hoping to create some of our own "Jonathan Park" adventures with maybe not so much drama. A milder version!!

My grandchildren (ages 4-8) will sit for a long time listening to these adventures.The Jonathan Park CD's all contain wholesome as well as exciting listening entertainment.The stories stimulate their imaginations and encourage positive behavior.

My kids are 11 and 7 and they love Jonathon Park. The way they incorporate science into stories is excellent. My kids recall scientific concepts when a situation presents itself, so I know they are retaining it well from listening to the stories. Highly recommended.

Listened to for years with my son and have passed it on to as many others as possible. I have been a teacher for over 20 years, public and home-school, and wish we had access to excellence of product such as this in the public school realm.. Keeps listeners engaged, no matter what the age!

We own all the Jonathan Park CDs and they are all exciting and fun adventure stories loaded with Science and History from a Biblical Worldview. Our children absolutely love the stories and as a Christian Homeschool mom, I love all the stuff packed into them! Thanks Vision Forum!

My kids love all of the Jonathan Park cd's. We have listened to them time and time again! They will beg me to drive around the block so we can finish it before we Park the car. We have taken road trips and they will choose to listen to these over watching movies! I have also learned so much about creationism listening to these! Don't hesitate to buy these!!!

While it is well done, it is sort of a let down compared to their previous adventures. I wanted to hear more about the creatures and animals of the earth, but 99% of the time they talk about Darwin. Personally disappointed.
