I used this book as a read aloud for my first graders during the month of April. I do have a few students who would have been able to read it but the rest of them are not there yet so I read it aloud and we discussed each chapter. I would say the reading level is end of first grade- beginning of third grade (obviously depends on your child's reading ability). We have read all of the calendar mysteries stories this year and love them.

Too young for an 8 yr old

My husband and I read these stories to my daughter at bedtime. The kids solve mysteries and use critical thinking skills to solve problems.

I purchased the first 4 books in this mystery series for my 7 year old granddaughter. She likes them.I will continue purchasing the rest of the series for her.

We purchased this for our youngest grandson who's birthday is in April & is just learning to read. This will be a challenge but we think he's up for it and one way to get him interested in this series of books.
